Violence in relationships

In cases of violence in relationships / (ex-) partnerships we think intensive (one-to-one) counselling is particularly important.

The aim is to bring an end to the violence or threats, abuse, harassment in the long term. Often, it is not a question of “reconciliation” but rather of an amicable separation, the clarification of related issues (e.g. contact with children), of agreeing on a contact ban and / or making use of further support.

Intervention can be direct or indirect. We work together with the public prosecution department and with other advice centres in the city of Hannover and surrounding region.
